DISCLAIMER

The NSW Government is committed to enhancing the public availability, dissemination and exchange of information. To this end, this website has been established by the Redfern-Waterloo Authority (RWA) so as to enable you to quickly and easily access information in relation to the RWA's operational area.

The information provided on the RWA's site is provided on the basis that all persons accessing the site undertake responsibility for assessing the relevance, completeness and accuracy of its content. The RWA cannot warrant and does not represent that the material which appears on the RWA's site or any linked sites is complete, current, reliable and/or free from error. The RWA also cannot accept any responsibility or liability for any loss, damage, cost or expense you might incur as a result of the use of or reliance upon the materials which appear at this or any linked sites.

The RWA site has been designed and made available as an internet search tool only. As such you should be aware that the information you obtain from your search will depend upon the search method you use. Similarly, the RWA site is not intended to be, and should not be relied upon as, the ultimate and complete source of information on any particular topic.

Links have been set up to this site in line with the RWA's desire to promote a free exchange of information. The RWA does not necessarily endorse or support the views, opinions, standards or information that appear at the linked sites. You should be aware that the providers of linked sites will often have their own protocols and standards in relation to their sites and the information which appears on them. We urge you to familiarise yourself with any such protocols and standards. Similarly, you should also not interpret the absence of a link from the RWA site to any other site as a criticism or comment by the RWA on the provider of content of that other site.

The links which appear on the RWA site have been set up as an information source only and with a view to promoting multiculturalism, tolerance and other diversity in our society. You should, therefore bear in mind that some of the material that appears on the linked sites and on the RWA site may possibly cause offence or upset to some people. The RWA regrets, but cannot take responsibility for, any such offence or upset caused.

In the event that you are offended or upset by the material which appears on the RWA site and/or any linked site, you are entitled to lodge a complaint with the Australian Communications and Media Authority ("ACMA") who will then investigate the complaint and take such action as it thinks fit. If you would like to know more about the ACMA's role in regulating Australian Internet content, you can visit its website at <http://www.acma.gov.au>
