

Debating the War on 'Addiction'

Are we really in the grip of an ice epidemic?

Are the lock out laws working?

Are the new smoking rules a step to far?

Is prohibition and criminalisation the right answer?

Does the focus on illicit drugs put Australia's drinking problem on ice?

Join REDWatch and Redfern's Community Drug Action Team members for our Round table debate and share your perspective and hear from those working in the field.
